Endorsements that will apply to your policy

Any words in bold print are defined terms. You can find more information about these in your policy wording.

► An endorsement is a change to your policy terms and conditions which can either restrict your cover or provide you with extra cover

001 Manual work exclusion

Applicable to the Public and products liability section and Employers' liability sections. The following is added under What is not covered

We will not cover claims caused by or arising from manual work.

045 Fire combustibility exclusion

The following applies to the Professional indemnity section of your policy. This will apply irrespective of anything contained in your policy to the contrary:

1. The definition of Claim(s) in your policy is deleted and replaced by the following

Claim(s)

Any verbal or written demand, notice or communication from a third party

1. making an assertion for legal remedy or any other form of compensation or remedy
2. containing reference to, or serving notice of, intent to start legal proceedings
3. invoking any pre-action protocol as set under the Civil Procedure Rules and/or
4. referring to arbitration, adjudication or complaint proceedings
5. alleging or asserting the rendering of any property unfit for habitation

2. Fire combustibility exclusion

We will not cover any claim or claim circumstance arising directly or indirectly out of, or in any way connected with, any actual or alleged failure of any product, material or system used in the construction, alteration, repair, treatment or refurbishment of any building or structure to comply with applicable regulations in respect of the performance of combustibility, fire resistance or fire protection.

You agree that the RICS Difference in conditions clause in your policy does not apply to this endorsement.
